

Ivy Pain

Died peacefully, age 94, on 20th June. She was well known in Bedgrove for being a good friend and neighbour to anyone she met. Ivy lived in Aylesbury from 1957, first in Broughton Avenue then Ingram Avenue and was a faithful member of Limes Avenue Baptist church for all of that time, working with many local families in children's and toddler groups.

David, Joyce and Carolyn invite all who knew Ivy to her Thanksgiving Service at Limes Avenue Baptist Church, Aylesbury on Thursday 26th June at 6pm.
